

New York University
Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development
Distinguished Alumna Award
Gloria Allred, Esq.

Gloria Allred, you are a tireless crusader. A champion for equal rights, you have represented countless men and women facing obstacles and challenges due to their gender, sexual orientation, race, age, religion, or disability. You continually seek justice for the world's inequities and help us believe in the American judicial system. Your endless devotion to bettering the lives of others and remarkable work as lawyer, journalist, volunteer and civic organizer, life-long educator, and mother set you apart. Today we are proud to present you with the 2009 Distinguished Alumna Achievement Award.

May 11, 2009

Mary Brabeck, Dean