Statement of Robin M.

I was sexually victimized by Roman Polanski when I was a minor at the age of 16 (1973). The day after it happened I did tell one friend what Mr. Polanski had done to me.

The reason, with this exception, I kept it to myself is that I didn't want my father to do something that might cause him to go to prison for the rest of his life.

When Samantha Geimer became the victim of unlawful sexual intercourse by Roman Polanski in 1977, I considered speaking up to support her in the criminal case brought against him. Her case didn't appear to need my support, however, so I stayed quiet.

Over the years, I've been satisfied that this child molester, Roman Polanski, is publicly known for sexually victimizing a 13 year old girl.

Recently I saw Samantha Geimer on the news appearing to support Mr. Polanski and stating that "he has done everything he needed to do". This infuriated me! I am speaking out now so that Samantha and the world will know that she is not the only minor Roman Polanski victimized.

I am not over it and I certainly believe that Roman Polanski should be held accountable for his criminal conduct with Samantha Geimer. He fled the country. Years have passed and he is famous, but that does not excuse his criminal conduct of sexually victimizing minors.
