Statement of Anne Lowry O'Malia

A few weeks ago, a 26 year old man, who is also a celebrity known as Tyga, contacted my 14 year old daughter Molly through social media. Molly thought that he may have contacted her because she is involved in music and modeling, but the communication, made her feel uncomfortable, and she had the good sense to put a stop to the communication.

We thought that was the end of it until we learned that OK! Magazine had published a cover story about Tyga's contacting Molly. On their cover, OK! used a poorly blurred photo of my daughter and falsely insinuated that there was an inappropriate sexually suggestive relationship going on between Tyga and Molly. We couldn't believe they did that. This article, photos and Direct Messages that were published have caused serious problems for our family.

We are here today because involving Molly in this way was wrong, and because Molly decided that the best thing to do was to stand up for herself. I am very proud of her for having the courage to come here today and do this. It was not an easy decision to make, but to us, sitting back and doing nothing was not an option. I love you Molly, and am proud to be your mom.
