Statement of Grecia Palma

I was infuriated when I heard the news that Nathaniel Radimak, who was on parole for crimes he committed against women in Los Angeles, was arrested for allegedly assaulting two more women in Hawaii. This is exactly what we feared. I did not believe that a short time behind bars for the crimes he committed in Los Angeles County was enough.

This latest failure highlights how broken and ineffective the system truly is. It's disheartening and enraging to see it fall short yet again!

Our prayers go out to these women whom the prosecutor alleges were victims of Mr. Radimak. I hope that justice will be done in this new criminal case. May they find the justice they deserve.

Thank you.
