Statement of Attorney Gloria Allred

I am very happy for my client, Miriam Haley. Harvey Weinstein was convicted today of a criminal sexual act in the first degree against Ms. Haley. In the first trial in New York, Miriam also testified, and Mr. Weinstein was convicted of a criminal sexual act in the first degree of Ms. Haley. He was sentenced to twenty years in prison based on that conviction. Then the New York Court of Appeals set aside the conviction because they felt he did not get a fair trial because of the admission of Me Too witnesses. In New York, they are called Molineaux witnesses. The retrial then took place in New York, and Miriam agreed to testify again.

Today, a different jury convicted Mr. Weinstein of criminal sexual act in the first degree of Miriam. Miriam was very, very courageous throughout all of these years and throughout the very aggressive and sometimes very ugly cross examination by the defense which attempted unsuccessfully to discredit her.

Miriam is the shero of the Me Too movement. I admire her courage and have been honored to represent her. She is looking forward to returning to give her victim impact statement at the sentencing. Justice for Miriam has prevailed today.
